Coat of arms of Mazovia Voivodeship

Autor: arch. UMWM

The coat of arms of Mazovia Voivodeship has been adopted by the Council of Mazovia Voivodeship (Sejmik of Mazovia Voivodeship) with a Resolution No. 90/06 of 26 May 2006 on the pattern of the coat of arms of Mazovia Voivodeship and the rules for its use. It represents a white eagle with a yellow beak and talons on a red background.

The coat of arms of Mazovia Voivodeship is a property of the Voivodeship and is legally protected. The right to use it have the voivodeship authorities and regional self-government organizational units, as well as other entities for identification or promotional purposes after filing a proper, written application to the Board of Mazovia Voivodeship that shall take, in a form of a resolution, a decision to consent.

The application should include:

- The applicants data (name, surname, organization name, contact information);
- Information specifying the manner and the extent of use of the coat of arms;
- Basic information about the applicant (as an attachment to the application).

The application should be send by regular mail to the Office of the Mazowieckie Voivodeship or by e-mail: urzad_marszalkowski@mazovia.pl.
